Commemorative Giving

A caring way to recognize a milestone, celebrate an occasion, and remember someone special

In Memory · In Honour

In Memory

Memorial gifts are a meaningful way to remember a friend or loved one who has passed away.

In Honour

A gift in honour is a wonderful way to recognize a person's birthday, wedding, retirement, or another occasion.

"Mom and Dad devoted their lives to helping others, and when they needed help, Mount St. Mary staff took wonderful care of them. There was no better way to celebrate our parents than making a donation to help others like them."

- John A., resident relative and donor

When you give a gift in honour of someone special or in memory of someone who has passed away, we let the person honoured or their next of kin know about your thoughtful, generous tribute in their name. Mount St. Mary will keep your name and the amount of your donation confidential unless you ask us to share it.

If you would like more info about making a commemorative gift, please contact Gregory Kuhn at 250-480-3138 or visit mountstmary.ca

What Does Your Gift Support?

Donating in the name of someone is a powerful way to honour someone you care about because it helps others.

When you make a commemorative gift, you enhance the lives of 275 of our community's most vulnerable individuals. Your gift helps meet the residents' physical, cognitive, spiritual, and emotional needs.

Your gift brings peace, strength, and comfort to those who need it most. The impact of your gift will touch the lives of residents every day.

You may choose to support the area of greatest need or designate your gift to a specific area to guarantee you are helping residents in a way that is meaningful to you and them.

Thank you

Thank you for your compassion and generosity.
